

SELECTED DISCIPLINE-SPECIFIC FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

Following is a discipline-specific list of selected funding opportunities for graduate students. The list is not comprehensive. Because many opportunities are multidisciplinary, additional opportunities appropriate to your needs may be listed in other categories. Note that while application deadlines generally fall around the same date each year, they may change. You should always check with the sponsoring agency for current deadlines and application information.

GENERAL HUMANITIES AWARDS

Ford Foundation Fellowships for Minorities:

Pre-doctoral, dissertation, and postdoctoral fellowships in the humanities, behavioral, and social sciences. Applicants must be Native American Indian, Alaskan Native (Eskimo or Aleut), African American, Mexican American/Chicano, Native Pacific Islander, or Puerto Rican and be citizens or nationals of the U.S. Contact: Fellowships Office, GR 346A; National Research Council of the National Academies; 500 Fifth Street, NW; Washington, D.C. 20001. Phone: (202) 334-2872. Web Site: <http://www7.nationalacademies.org/fellowships/>. Deadlines: November 17 (pre-doctoral fellowships), December 1 (dissertation fellowships), December 15 (postdoctoral fellowships).

Fulbright Awards for Graduate Students:

The Fulbright Program offers scholarships for foreign study at the pre-doctoral level in over 120 countries. If you're interested in a Fulbright, contact the KU-Fulbright liaison, Hodgie Bricke, Assistant Dean, International Programs, Graduate School, 300 Strong Hall, phone: 864-6161. For information on Fulbright programs see the Fulbright web page at the Institute for International Education's Web Site at <http://www.iie.org/fulbright/>. Deadline: October 21.

Library Company of Philadelphia:

Program in Early American Economy and Society. Dissertation fellowship for research in the library. Tenure period from September to May. Amount of award: $18,000. One month research fellowships. Amount: $1,800. Postdoctoral research fellowship, carrying a stipend of $40,000, is tenable for nine consecutive months of residency from September to May 31. Contact: Cathy Matson, Program Director, Library Company of Philadelphia, Program in Early American Economy and Society, 1314 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. E-mail: cmatson@udel.edu. Web Site: <http://www.librarycompany.org/Economics/EFellowships.htm> Deadlines: November 1 (postdoctoral fellowship) and March 1 (dissertation and one-month fellowships).

Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Humanities at Cornell University:

Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Humanities: One-year postdoctoral teaching-research fellowships in specified areas of the humanities, beginning July 1. Amount: $40,000.

Cornell Society for the Humanities Postdoctoral Fellowships: One-year postdoctoral research and writing fellowships following a yearly theme. Amount: $40,000.

For more information contact: Program Administrator, Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships –or– Society for the Humanities, Cornell University, A. D. White House, 27 East Avenue, Ithaca, NY 14853-1101. Telephone: 607-255-9274. E-mail: humctr-mailbox@cornell.edu. Web Site: <http://www.arts.cornell.edu/sochum/html/index.html>. Deadline: October 1.

Huntington Library:

The Huntington offers several fellowships for graduate students and recent Ph.D. recipients to conduct research at the Library.

Huntington Fellowships: Open to Ph.D.s and doctoral candidates at dissertation stage. Tenure of one to five months with monthly stipend of $2,000.

W.M. Keck Foundation Fellowships for Young Scholars: Non-tenured faculty or doctoral candidate at the dissertation stage. Award tenure of one to five months with monthly stipends of $2,300.

Huntington-British Academy Fellowships for Study in Great Britain: Ph.D. exchange fellowship in any field in which the Huntington collections are strong. Award tenure of one month.

Barbara Thom Postdoctoral Fellowships: Non-tenured faculty for purpose of revising manuscript for publication. Award tenure of nine to twelve months. Amount: $40,000.

Mellon Postdoctoral Research Fellowships: Must hold Ph.D. or equivalent. Tenure of award is nine to twelve months. Amount: $40,000.

NEH Fellowships: Must hold Ph.D. or equivalent and be U.S. citizen or foreign national with at least three years' U.S. residence. Award tenure four to twelve months. Amount: Up to $40,000.

Clark-Huntington Joint Bibliographical Fellowship: Two-month postdoctoral fellowship in descriptive bibliography and the history of the book. Carries a stipend of $4,000.

For all Huntington Fellowship Programs Contact: Committee on Fellowships, The Huntington Library, 1151 Oxford Road, San Marino, CA 91108. Contact phone: (626) 405-2194. Web Site: <http://huntington.org/>. Deadline: December 15.

Stanford Humanities Fellows Program:

Two-year (renewable for a third year) postdoctoral scholar-teacher positions in the humanities. Four specific humanities disciplines are targeted this year. Amount: $50,000. Contact: Humanities Fellows Program, Building 460, Room 201, Stanford University, 450 Serra Mall, Stanford, CA 94305-2087. Web Site: <http://fellows.stanford.edu/>. Deadline: December 5.

IREX (International Research and Exchanges Board):

The Board offers various grant programs for advanced research, short-term travel, and language training in Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, the Middle East and North America, Asia, and the United States. Some opportunities are at the pre-doctoral and some at the postdoctoral levels.

For information on current programs and deadlines contact IREX. Contact: International Research and Exchanges Board, 2121 K Street NW, Suite 700, Washington, D.C. 20037.

Contact phone: (202) 628-8188. E-mail: irex@irex.org. Web Site: <http://www.irex.org>.

Deadline: Various.

Rockefeller Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowships at Research Institutes:

The Rockefeller Foundation sponsors residential postdoctoral fellowships in the humanities at various centers and institutes in the United States and in Latin America for scholars engaged in research on transnational issues, non-Western cultures and the diverse cultural heritage of the United States. Individual programs have specific foci. A listing of current programs, their addresses and application materials is available from the Foundation. Contact: Humanities Fellowships, Creativity and Culture Division, The Rockefeller Foundation, 420 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10018-2702. Phone: (212) 869-8500. E-mail: creativity@rockfound.org. Web Site: <http://www.rockfound.org>. Deadline: Various.

Smithsonian Institution:

The Smithsonian Institution Fellowship Program offers fellowships to persons interested in pursuing independent research projects in association with members of the Smithsonian professional research staff. The Institution offers fields of research and study in American History, American Material and Folk Culture, History of Science and Technology, History of Art, Anthropology, Archaeology, and Ethnic Studies among other areas, including Materials Characterization and Conservation. Applicants are strongly encouraged to write potential S.I. advisors to determine the feasibility of the proposed research. Fellowships available include: Graduate Student Fellowships (Stipend: $4,500/ten weeks); Predoctoral Fellowships (Stipend: $22,000/3-12 months); Postdoctoral (Stipend: $35,000/3-12 months). Contact: Office of Fellowships, Smithsonian Institution, PO Box 37012, Victor Building, Suite 9300, MRC 902, Washington, DC 20013-7012. Contact phone: (202) 275-0655. E-mail: siofg@ofg.si.edu. Web Site: <http://www.si.edu/ofg/>. Deadline: January 15.

Postdoctoral Fellowships in Arts and Humanities, Social/Phys./Life Sciences, & Professional SchoolsMichigan Society of Fellows, University of Michigan:

Fellowships provided by the Michigan Society of Fellows provide financial and intellectual support for outstanding people at the beginning of their professional careers. Candidates must have received the Ph.D. or comparable professional or artistic final degree between June 1, 2003, and September 1, 2006. Amount: $47,271 annual stipend. The fellowships are tenable in Ann Arbor, for three academic years. There is a $30.00 application fee. Contact the Society: Michigan Society of Fellows, University of Michigan, 3572 Rackham Building, 915 E. Washington Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1070. Phone: (734) 763-1259. E-mail: society.of.fellows@umich.edu. Web Site: <http://www.rackham.umich.edu/Faculty/society.html>. Deadline: September 30.

Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships, Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation:

The Woodrow Wilson Foundation awards 28 Newcombe Fellowships annually to graduate student applicants from the humanities and social sciences to encourage original study of ethical or religious values. Research may also concern the ethical implications of foreign policy, values influencing political decision-making, the moral codes of other cultures, and religious or ethical issues reflected in the history of literature. Proposals must have ethical or religious values as a central concern. Amount: $18,500 for twelve months of full-time dissertation writing; graduate schools will be asked to waive tuition for Newcombe Fellows. Contact: Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships, Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, P.O. Box 5281, Princeton, NJ 08543. Contact phone: (609) 452-7007 or 1-800-899-9963. E-mail: charlotte@woodrow.org. Web Site: <http://www.woodrow.org/newcombe/>. Deadline: November 7.

AFRICAN AND AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIESSchomburg Center for Research in Black Culture:

The Center offers 6-12 month postdoctoral fellowships for research and writing in black history and culture through its Scholars-in-Residence Program. Amount: $25,000 or $50,000. Contact: Director, Scholars-in-Residence Program, Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 515 Malcolm X Boulevard, New York, NY 10037-1801. Contact phone: (212) 491-2218. Web Site: <http://www.nypl.org/research/sc/scholars/index.html>. Deadline: December 1.

Carter G. Woodson Institute for Afro-American and African Studies, University of Virginia:

Postdoctoral Fellowships: Support Ph.D. recipients whose projects are in those disciplines of the humanities and social sciences that concern themselves with Afro-American and African studies. Recipients must be in residence for one year at the University of Virginia for the duration of the award, where fellows will hold the status of Visiting Scholars in their respective fields and are required to teach one course. Amount: $45,000.

Predocctoral Fellowships: Two-year fellowships to support graduate student research projects in the humanities and social sciences concerned with Afro-American and African studies. Amount: $20,000, plus health insurance.

Contact (for both): Selection Committee, Residential Research Fellowships, The Carter G. Woodson Institute, 108 Minor Hall, P.O. Box 400162, Charlottesville, VA 22904-4162. Contact: (434) 924-3109. Email: woodson@gwis.virginia.edu. Web Site: <http://www.virginia.edu/woodson/>. Deadline: December 2.

AMERICAN STUDIES

Hagley Museum and Library: The History of Business, Technology, and Society:

The Hagley Museum and Library offers several fellowships in support of research in the history of business, technology, and society.

Grants-in-Aid and H.B. Du Pont Fellowships: Support research in the collections of the museum and library. The Grants-in-Aid are for periods of two weeks to two months, with stipends of up to $1,400 per month. The Du Pont Fellowships are for two to six months, with stipends up to $1,400 per month. Both are open to students and scholars with the Ph.D. Contact: Dr. Philip Scranton, Center for the History of Business, Technology, and Society, P. O. Box 3630, Wilmington, DE 19807-0630. Deadlines: March 31, June 30, and October 31.

Hagley-Winterthur Fellowships in Arts and Industry: Supports projects that use the research collections of the Hagley Museum and Library and the Winterthur Museum, Garden, and Library. Tenure from one to six months, with stipend of up to $1,400 per month. Open to both graduate students and Ph.D.s. Contact: Dr. Philip Scranton, Center for the History of Business, Technology, and Society, P.O. Box 3630, Wilmington, DE 19807-0630. Deadline: December 1.

Henry Belin Du Pont Dissertation Fellowship in Business, Technology, and Society: Supports research and writing of the dissertation for projects that make significant use of the Hagley's collections. Duration of the fellowship is four months. Amount: $6,000 plus free housing, and the use of an office with computer. Contact: Dr. Roger Horowitz, Center for the History of Business, Technology and Society, Hagley Museum and Library, P.O. Box 3630, Wilmington, DE 19807-0630. E-mail: rhowitz@hagley.org. Web Site: <http://www.hagley.lib.de.us/grants.html> Deadline: November 15.

The Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives:

The Center sponsors several month-long fellowships for serious research in areas related to the history of the North American Jewish experience. Research must be performed at the Archives in Cincinnati, Ohio. Fellowship stipend is sufficient to cover transportation and living expenses while in residence in Cincinnati. Contact: Mr. Kevin Proffitt, The Director of the Fellowship Program, c/o The Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives, 3101 Clifton Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45220-2408. Contact phone: (513) 221-7444, ext. 304. Web Site: <http://www.americanjewisharchives.org/aja/programs/index.html>. Deadline: March 18.

American Antiquarian Society:

The Society offers several fellowships at the postdoctoral and predoctoral level for research in American culture and history including:

Long-Term Fellowships:

AAS-NEH Fellowship: Long-term postdoctoral fellowship for full-time study and research at the AAS. Tenure four to twelve months. Maximum stipend is $40,000. Deadline: January 15.

Mellon Post-Dissertation Fellowship: Similar to the AAS-NEH Fellowship, but the tenure is twelve months. $30,000 stipend. Deadline: October 15.

Short-Term Fellowships:

Kate B. and Hall J. Peterson Fellowships are for research on any topic supported by the collections. One to three months, $1000 per month. Deadline: January 15.

The Legacy Fellowship is also for research on any topic supported by the collections. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

Stephen Botein Fellowships are for research in the history of the book in American culture. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

The Joyce Tracy Fellowship is for research on newspapers and magazines or for projects using these resources as primary documentation. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

AAS-American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies Fellowships are for research on projects related to the American eighteenth century. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

American Historical Print Collectors Society Fellowship is for research on American prints of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries or for projects using prints as primary documentation. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

The Reese Fellowship supports research in American bibliography and projects in the history of the book in America. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

The "Drawn to Art" Fellowship supports research on American art, visual culture, or other projects that will make substantial use of graphic materials as primary sources. One month, $1000. Deadline: January 15.

The Christoph Daniel Ebeling Fellowship is intended for a scholar in American studies at the dissertation or habilitation research level at a university in Germany. One to two months, 900 Euro per month. Deadline: February 15.

Request forms and materials from the Society: Academic Fellowships, American Antiquarian Society, 185 Salisbury Street, Worcester, MA 01609. Contact phone: (508) 755-5221. Web Site: <http://www.americanantiquarian.org/>.

Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies of the City University of New York:

Joan Heller-Diane Bernard Fellowship in Lesbian and Gay Studies: supports research into the impact of lesbians and/or gay men on U.S. society and culture. Those conducting research on lesbians are especially encouraged to apply. Award amount $5,000.

Contact: CLAGS, The Graduate Center / CUNY, 365 Fifth Avenue, Room 7115, New York, NY 10016. Contact phone: (212) 817-1955. Email: clags@gc.cuny.edu. Web Site:

<http://web.gc.cuny.edu/Clags/awards.htm>. Deadline: November 15.

John W. Hartman Center for Sales, Advertising, and Marketing History:

The Hartman Center Special Collections Library at Duke University offers travel-to-collections grants to graduate students and faculty in any field. The J. Walter Thompson Company archive is the major collection. Amount: Up to $1,000. Contact: Research Grants Program, Rare Book, Manuscript, and Special Collections Library, Box 90185, Duke University, Durham, NC 27708-0185. Web Site: <http://scriptorium.lib.duke.edu/grants.html>. Deadline: January 17.

ANTHROPOLOGY

School of American Research, Resident Scholar Fellowships:

The SAR is a center for advanced studies in anthropology and related disciplines, supporting scholars doing research in anthropology and allied fields such as history, sociology, art, law, and philosophy who approach their research from an anthropologically informed perspective. Both humanistically and scientifically oriented scholars are encouraged to apply. Tenure: September 1 to May 31. Amount: $40,000 and an apartment and office. Contact: Resident Scholar Program, School of American Research, P. O. Box 2188, Santa Fe, NM 87504-2188. Email: scholar@sarsf.org. Web Site: <http://www.sarweb.org/scholars/scholars.htm>. Deadline: November 15.

Cultural Anthropology Program, National Science Foundation:

The Cultural Anthropology Program promotes basic scientific research on the causes and consequences of human social and cultural variation. The program solicits research proposals of theoretical importance in all substantive and theoretical subfields within the discipline of Cultural Anthropology. Contact: Deborah Winslow, National Science Foundation, Cultural Anthropology, 4201 Wilson Blvd., Room 995, Arlington, VA 22230. Contact phone: (703) 292-7315. E-mail: dwinslow@nsf.gov. Deadlines: January 1 and August 1. Web Site: <http://www.nsf.gov/sbe/bcs/anthro/suppdiss.jsp>.

Dissertation Fellowships, Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation:

The Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation (HFG) welcomes proposals from any of the natural and social sciences and the humanities that promise to increase understanding of the causes, manifestations, and control of violence, aggression, and dominance. Highest priority is given to research that can increase understanding and amelioration of urgent problems of violence, aggression, and dominance in the modern world. Applicants must be within one year of completion of the Ph.D. Amount: $15,000 for one year. Contact: The Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation, 25 West 53rd Street, New York, NY 10019-5401. Contact phone: (646) 428-0971. Web Site: <http://www.hfg.org/>. Deadline: February 1.

Dissertation Fieldwork Grants, Foundation for Anthropological Research:

The Wenner-Gren Foundation offers small grants for research and field work in any country. Applicants must be enrolled for a doctoral degree in anthropology or a related discipline. The grants are intended to aid doctoral dissertation or thesis research, and the award is contingent upon the applicant's successful completion of Ph.D. requirements except the dissertation. Application must be made jointly with a thesis advisor or other scholar who will take responsibility for supervising the project. Amount: Up to $25,000. Contact: Wenner-Gren Foundation, 470 Park Avenue South, 8th Floor, New York, NY 10016. Contact phone: (212) 683-5000. Email: inquiries@wennergren.org. Deadlines: May 1 and November 1.

Web Site: <http://www.wennergren.org/programsirg.html>.

ART HISTORY

Metropolitan Museum of Art:

The Bothmer Fellowship: Awarded to an outstanding graduate student who has been admitted to the doctoral program of a university in the United States, and who has submitted an outline of a thesis dealing with either Greek or Roman art.

Andrew W. Mellon Fellowships: For young scholars with research projects related to the Museum's collections and visiting scholars who can serve as teachers and advisors and use their expertise to catalogue and refine the collections. Usually fellowships are for a maximum of one year, most of which should be spent at the Metropolitan Museum.

Polaire Weissman Fund: Provides fellowships to qualified graduate students, who preferably will have completed graduate studies in the fine arts or studies in costume, and who are interested in pursuing costume history in a museum or teaching career, or other career (including conservation) related to the field of costume. These grants are generally awarded for a nine-month term.

The Douglass Foundation Fellowship in American Art: Awarded to a young scholar for one year's study or research in the American Wing (in either the Department of American Paintings and Sculpture or the Department of American Decorative Arts) on an aspect of the Museum's collection.

Theodore Rousseau Fellowships: Intended to develop the skills of connoisseurship by supporting firsthand examination of paintings in major European collections, rather than by supporting library research. The fellowships are awarded for the training of students whose goal is to enter museums as curators of painting. Short-term fellowships of at least three months will be considered along with twelve month requests.

For all awards, contact: Marcie Karp, Fellowship Program in Art History, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1000 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10028.

E-mail: education.grants@metmuseum.org. Deadline: November 4.

Web Site: <http://www.metmuseum.org/education/fellowship.html>.

American Art, Material Culture & Design, American History:

Winterthur Museum, Garden, and Library offers several graduate fellowships including the NEH Fellowship, Lois F. McNeil Dissertation Fellowship, Robert Lee Gill Fellowship, Winterthur Research Fellowship, Faith Andrews Fellowships, and Dwight P. Lanmon Fellowships. Tenures and stipends vary according to fellowship. Contact: Kay Collins, Office of Academic Programs, Winterthur Museum, Wilmington, DE 19735. Contact phone: 302-888-4649. Email:

kcollins@winterthur.org. Web Site: <http://www.winterthur.org/>. Deadline: January 15.

Samuel H. Kress Foundation Two-Year Fellowships in the History of Art and Travel Fellowships:

History of Art Fellowships: The Kress Foundation offers four $22,500/year pre-doctoral fellowships in the history of European art for a two-year research appointment at a foreign institution. Interested individuals must be nominated by their art history department.

Travel Fellowships: For advanced doctoral candidates in the history of art and archaeology who need to travel to view materials essential for their dissertation research ($3,500-10,000).

Applicants must be nominated by their Art History Department.

Contact: Samuel H. Kress Foundation, 174 East 80th Street, New York, NY 10021. Phone: (212) 861-4993. Web Site: <http://www.shkf.org/>. Deadline: November 30.

National Gallery of Art Pre-doctoral Fellowship Program:

The National Gallery of Art offers a number of fellowships including the Wyeth Fellowship, the Ittleson Fellowship, the Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship, the Robert H. and Clarice Smith Fellowship, the David E. Finley Fellowship, the Paul Mellon Fellowship, the Samuel H. Kress Fellowship, and the Chester Dale Fellowship. All pre-doctoral fellowships are $20,000 per year. Applicants must be ABD, certify competence in two foreign languages, and be either U.S. citizens or enrolled in a U.S. university. The Fellowship is intended for the advancement or completion of a doctoral dissertation in Western art. Applicants must be nominated by the chair of their art history department. Contact: Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts, National Gallery of Art, 2000B South Club Drive, Landover, Maryland 20785. Phone: (202) 842-6482. Web Site: <http://www.nga.gov/resources/casvagre.htm>. Deadline: November 15.

Henry Luce Foundation/ACLS Dissertation Fellowship Program in American Art:

The Henry Luce/ACLS Dissertation Fellowships in American Art are meant to assist graduate students writing or researching a dissertation focused on a topic in the history of the visual arts of the United States. The grants may be carried out in residence at the Fellow's home institution, abroad, or at another appropriate site for the research. Amount: $22,500. Contact: American Council of Learned Societies, 633 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017-6795. Telephone: (212) 697-1505. Web Site: <http://www.acls.org/luceguid.htm>. Deadline: November 10.

ASIAN STUDIESLouise Wallace Hackney Fellowship for the Study of Chinese Art, American Oriental Society:

This fellowship is for the study of Chinese art with special attention to painting and its reflection of Chinese culture. Amount: $8,000 with stipends dispensed in monthly payments. Tenure: Twelve months, with renewal possible. Contact: Hackney Fellowship, American Oriental Society, Hatcher Graduate Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1205. Web Site: <http://www.umich.edu/~aos/hackney.htm>. Deadline: March 1.

Research Travel Within the United States, AAS, NEAC Japan Studies Grants.

Sponsored by the Association for Asian Studies, Inc., this award is for research travel to use museum, library, or other archival materials located in the United States. Grants are primarily intended for postdoctoral research on Japan, but Ph.D. candidates are eligible to receive support for doctoral dissertation research at appropriate collections. Amount: Up to $1,500 and $100 for daily expenses. Contact: NEAC Grants Program, Association for Asian Studies, 1021 East Huron Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48104. Deadlines: October 1 and February 1. Web Site: <http://www.aasianst.org/grants/grants.htm#NEAC>.

Asian Cultural Council—Humanities Fellowships:

The Humanities Fellowship Program primarily to supports American scholars and graduate students in the humanities to undertake research, training, and study in Asia in archaeology, architecture (design, theory, and history), art history, art and architectural conservation, crafts, dance, film, museology, music, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, theater, and video. Fellowships range from one to nine months. The program also supports American and Asian scholars participating in international conferences, exhibitions, visiting professorships, and similar projects. Contact: Asian Cultural Council, 437 Madison Avenue, 37th Floor, New York, NY 10022-7001. Phone: 212/812-4300. E-mail: acc@accny.org. Deadline: February 1. Web Site: <http://asianculturalcouncil.org/>.

CCK Fellowships for Dissertations, Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange:

Doctoral candidates may apply for financial support for the writing of their dissertations. Applicants must have completed all other requirements for their Ph.D. degree except the dissertation and must be legal permanent residents or citizens of the U.S. In addition, eligible applicants should not be employed or receive grants from other sources. A pre-doctoral dissertation grant is limited to $15,000. Contact: Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange, 8361 B Greensboro Dr., McLean, VA 22102. Email: cckfnao@aol.com. Web Site: <http://www.cckf.org/amprogram/cckfphd.html>. Deadline: October 15.

CLASSICS

Archaeological Institute of America:

The Olivia James Traveling Fellowship is intended for graduate students of Classics, sculpture, architecture, archaeology and history. The Fellowship allows for travel and study in Greece, the Aegean Islands, Sicily, Southern Italy, Asian Minor or Mesopotamia. Amount: $22,000.

The Helen M. Woodruff Fellowship is a pre- or post-doctoral fellowship for study of archaeology and classical studies. Contact: the American Academy in Rome, 7 East 60th Street, New York, NY 10022, or the American Academy in Rome's website: <http://www.aarome.org/>.

The Anna C. & Oliver C. Colburn Fellowship is awarded for the academic year to an applicant contingent upon his or her acceptance as an incoming Associate Member or Student Associate Member of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States or Canada, or be actively pursuing an advanced degree at a North American college or university, and must be at the pre-doctoral stage or have recently received a Ph.D. The stipend is $11,000.

The Harriet and Leon Pomerance Fellowship carries a stipend of $4,000, and is awarded to enable a person to work on an individual project of a scholarly nature related to Aegean Bronze Age Archaeology. Preference will be given to candidates whose project requires travel to the Mediterranean for the purpose stated above. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States or Canada, or be actively pursuing an advanced degree at a North American college or university.

Contact: Archaeological Institute of America, Boston University, 656 Beacon Street, 4th Floor, Boston, MA 02215-2006. Contact phone: (617) 358-184. E-mail: fellowships@aia.bu.edu.

Web Site: <http://www.archaeological.org/webinfo.php?page=10007>. Deadline: November 1 for all fellowships except the Anna C. & Oliver C. Colburn Fellowship, which is January 15.

Advanced Study in Greece, American School of Classical Studies at Athens:

The American School of Classical Studies at Athens offers several fellowships for Ph.D. students, predoctoral, and postdoctoral positions. These include: the W.F. Albright Institute Kress Traveling Fellowship, the Harry Bikakis Fellowship, the Oscar Broneer Traveling Fellowship, the Cotsen Traveling Fellowship for Research in Greece, the M. Alison Frantz Fellowship, the Jacob Hirsch Fellowship, the Paul Rehak Memorial Traveling Fellowship, and the Wiener Laboratory Fellowships. Deadline: Varies

School Fellowships for Regular Members: Up to thirteen fellowships are available for the School's Regular Program, a year-long introduction to the sites and monuments of Greece involving extensive travel plus lectures and seminars. Fellowships include: the Heinrich Schliemann and John Williams White Fellowships in archaeology, the Thomas Day

Seymour Fellowship in history and literature and seven Fellowships unrestricted as to field - the Virginia Grace, the Michael Jameson, the Philip Lockhart, the Lucy Shoe Meritt, the Martin Ostwald, the James and Mary Ottaway, Jr., and the James Rignall Wheeler. The Bert Hodge Hill is unrestricted, but with a preference for a student in art history. Fellowships provide a stipend of $10,000 plus room at Loring Hall on the School grounds, board, and waiver of School fees. Deadline: January 15.

School Advanced Fellowships: Several fellowships are available to students who have completed the Regular Program or one year as a Student Associate Member. These Fellowships include: the Samuel H. Kress Fellowship in art history; the Gorham Phillips Stevens Fellowship in the history of architecture; the Ione Mylonas Shear Fellowship in Mycenaean archaeology or Athenian architecture and/or archaeology; the Homer A. and Dorothy B. Thompson Fellowship in the study of pottery and three Fellowships unrestricted as to field: the Edward Capps, the Doreen Canaday Spitzer, and the Eugene Vanderpool Fellowships. Predoctoral Fellowships offered by the School for second year or advanced students provide a stipend of $10,000 plus room at Loring Hall on the School grounds, board, and waiver of School fees. Deadline: February 21.

Contact: American School of Classical Studies at Athens, Committee on Admissions and Fellowships, 6-8 Charlton Street, Princeton, NJ 08540-5232. Contact phone: (609) 683-0800. E-mail: ascsa@ascsa.org. Website: <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/fellowship/fellowships.htm>.

Henri Frankfort Fellowship, University of London:

The Warburg Institute, University of London, offers research fellowships in intellectual and cultural history, tenable at the Warburg Institute. The Henri Frankfort Fellowship may be held in any of the areas in which Professor Frankfort made contributions to scholarship: the intellectual and cultural history of the ancient Near East, with particular reference to society, art, architecture, religion, philosophy, and science; or the relations between the cultures of Mesopotamia, Egypt, and the Aegean, and their influence on later civilizations. The fellowship is not intended to support archaeological excavation. Amount: £1,600 for two month tenure, £2,400 for three month tenure, £3,200 for four month tenure. Contact: The Director, Warburg Institute, University of London, Woburn Square, London WC1H 0AB, U.K. Deadline: December 2. Web Site: <http://www.sas.ac.uk/warburg/Fellowships/Shortt.htm>.

ETHNIC STUDIES (VARIOUS AREAS)

Leo Baeck Institute Fellowships:

The Leo Baeck Institute offers several fellowships for graduate students researching German-Jewish history.

The Leo Baeck Institute (LBI) and The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) offer two fellowships per year for doctoral students or recent Ph.D.'s affiliated with an accredited U.S. institution of higher education. They provide financial assistance to students for dissertation research work and to academics for writing a scholarly essay or book. The fellowship consists of a $2000 stipend, paid in two installments of $1000, and is normally used within one calendar year. Applicants must be US citizens, and Ph.D. candidates or recent Ph.D.'s who have received their degrees within the preceding two years.

The LBI and the DAAD also offer one six- month, or two three-month graduate fellowship(s), per year, to provide financial assistance to doctoral students doing research for their dissertation that requires a period of research in libraries, archives or research institutions in the Federal Republic of Germany. The research must be in the field of study served by the LBI, i.e. the social, communal and intellectual history of German-speaking Jewry.

Amount: 975 euros, plus 520 euros for travel to and from the institute.

David Baumgardt Memorial Fellowship awards one fellowship per year for academics affiliated with an accredited institution of higher education. The fellowship provides financial assistance to scholars whose research projects are connected with the writings of Professor David Baumgardt or his scholarly interests, including Ethics, Wissenschaft des Judentums and the Modern Intellectual History of German-speaking Jewry. Stipend: $3,000.

The Fritz Halbers fellowships are for students enrolled in a Ph.D. program at an accredited institution of higher education. The fellowships provide financial assistance to scholars whose research projects are connected with the culture and history of German-speaking Jewry. Stipend: $3,000.

The Fred Grubel Fellowship is a paid summer internship program for a graduate student who will participate in work on a specific research topic (jointly determined by the candidate and the LBI) related to LBI collections, which can include archives, library, photo collection, and art collection. The research project should pertain to the lives of refugees of the 1930s and 1940s in New York. The fellow will be supervised by the director of research and will work on a day-to-day basis with archives and library staff. Ph.D. candidates from history, sociology, literature, or Jewish studies programs are eligible. The compensation is $1,500 per month. The deadline for applications is the fall of the year prior to the summer internship.

Contact: Ms. Ellen Musso, Leo Baeck Institute, 15 West 16th Street, New York, NY 10011.

Contact phone: (212) 744-6400. E-mail: emusso@lbi.cjh.org. Web Site: <http://www.lbi.com/>.

Deadline: November 1.

American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR):

The American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR) sponsors pre- and postdoctoral fellowships for research and study in all areas of the humanities and social sciences pertaining to the orient. Check the ASOR web site for specific programs relating to your level and field of study. The American Schools are located in Aman, Jordan; Jerusalem, Israel; Nicosia, Cyprus; and Baghdad, Iraq. Contact: American Schools of Oriental Research, Boston University, 656 Beacon Street, 5th Floor, Boston, MA 02215-2010. Telephone: 617/353-6570 Web Site: <http://www.asor.org/>.

Deadline: Varies by program.

UCLA Program in Ethnic Studies-Postdoctoral/Visiting Scholars Fellowship:

The Institute of American Cultures in cooperation with the University of California, Los Angeles's four ethnic studies research centers offers fellowships to postdoctoral scholars in support of research on African Americans, American Indians, Asian Americans, or Chicanos/as. The fellowship includes a stipend that ranges from $32,000 to $34,000, up to $4,000 in research support, and health benefits. Contact: Institute of American Cultures, 1237 Murphy Hall, Box 951419, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1419, phone: (310) 825-3521.

Email: IACcoordinator@gdnet.ucla.edu. Deadline: January 13.

Web Site: <http://www.gdnet.ucla.edu/iacweb/iachome.htm>

FINE ARTS

School of American Research, Indian Arts Research Center, Dubin Native American Artists Fellowship

A summer fellowship given to a Native American to encourage traditional Native American arts through support of artists of high merit. Primarily for those in the visual arts, but verbal and performing artists will be considered as well. Contact: Indian Arts Research Center, School of American Research, P. O. Box 2188, Sante Fe, New Mexico 87504-2188. Contact: (505) 954-

7205. Web Site: <http://www.sarweb.org/IARC/iarc.htm>. Deadline: Contact the IARC.

Young Artists Awards, Elizabeth Greenshields Foundation:

The Greenshields Foundation offers grants to talented young artists in the fine arts, including painting, drawing, printmaking, and sculpture. Applicants must have completed or be pursuing training in art school or have demonstrated a commitment to a lifetime career in art. Funds may be used for any art-related expense: study, travel, studio rental, materials purchase, etc. Amount: $10,000 (Canadian). Contact: The Elizabeth Greenshields Foundation, 1814 Sherbrooke Street West, Suite 1, Montreal, Quebec, H3H 1E4, CANADA. Contact phone: (514) 937-9225. E-mail: egreen@total.net. Website: <http://www.calarts.edu/~stdafrs/web/greenshields.html>.

Deadline: Continuous.

Residential Fellowships in the Creative Arts, Virginia Center for the Creative Arts:

Located just southwest of Washington, D.C., the Center is a working retreat for writers, visual artists, composers, and proponents of New Genres (video, film, installation, performance, conceptual art, interactive multimedia, and related work). It provides two-week to two-month residential fellowships for artists to pursue work free from the distractions of everyday life. Admission is competitive, based on a review of the applicant's work by panels of professional artists. Artists are expected to pay a portion of actual costs of residencies ($30 per day) depending on ability to pay; reductions granted for need. Contact: Virginia Center for the Creative Arts, 154 San Angelo Drive, Amherst, VA 24521. Phone (434) 946-7236. E-mail: vcqa@vcqa.com. Web Site: <http://www.vcca.com/>. Deadlines: January 15, May 15, and September 15.

Student Academy Awards, Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences:

The Academy offers awards to full-time film students at accredited colleges, universities, film schools or art schools. Awards are given for films made in a teacher-student relationship within the curricular structure of the student's educational institution. The purpose is to support and encourage filmmakers with no previous professional experience. Gold, silver, and bronze awards will be given by the Academy in recognition of outstanding achievements in student film making in the following categories: alternative, animation, documentary, and narrative. Amount: $2,000-$5,000. Contact: Richard Miller, Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, 8949 Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills, California 90211-1972. Tel: (310) 247-3000 x131. E-mail: rmiller@oscars.org Web Site: <http://www.oscars.org/saa/index.html>. Deadline: April 3.

HISTORY

American Historical Association:

Offers several small grants to advanced doctoral students. Only members of the Association are eligible. The grants are intended to further research progress and may be used for travel to a library or archive, or for microfilms, photographs, or photocopying. Amounts: most are $1,000. Contact: American Historical Association, 400 'A' Street, SE, Washington, D.C. 20003-3889. Contact phone: (202) 544-2422. Web Site: <http://www.historians.org/prizes/index.cfm>.

Deadline: Varies by program.

Organization of American Historians:

The Organization of American Historians sponsors several small grants and awards for graduate students. Amounts range from $500-$2,000. Contact: OAH Award and Prize Coordinator, Organization of American Historians, 112 North Bryan Avenue, P.O. Box 5457, Bloomington, IN 47408-5457. Phone: (812) 855-9852. Deadline: Varies by program. Web Site: <http://www.oah.org/activities/awards/index.html>.

Winterthur Library:

Winterthur Museum, Garden, and Library offers several graduate fellowships including the NEH Fellowship, Lois F. McNeil Dissertation Fellowship, Robert Lee Gill Fellowship, Winterthur Research Fellowship, Dwight P. Lanmon Fellowship and the Faith Andrews Fellowship. Tenures and stipends vary according to fellowship. Contact: Katherine C. Grier, Office of Academic Programs, Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library, Wilmington, DE 19735. Contact phone: 800/448-3883. Email: kgrier@winterthur.org. Web Site: <http://www.winterthur.org/>.

Deadlines: January 15.

Vatican Film Library, St. Louis University, Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship Program:

The Program is intended to assist graduate students and Ph.D.'s wishing to conduct research in the manuscript collections of the Vatican Film Library at Saint Louis University (St. Louis, MO). It provides travel expenses and per diem to researchers with well-defined projects for 2-8 week periods of research at the Library. Besides history, proposed projects may be in classical languages and literature, paleography, scriptural and patristic studies, philosophy and sciences in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, and early Romance literature. There are also opportunities for supported research in the history of music, manuscript illumination, mathematics and technology, theology, liturgy, Roman and canon law, and political theory. Amount: Varies. Contact: Vatican Film Library Mellon Fellowship, Vatican Film Library, Pius XII Memorial Library, Saint Louis University, 3650 Lindell Blvd., Saint Louis, MO 63108-3302. Contact phone: (314) 977-3090. E-mail: passga@slu.edu. Web Site: <http://www.slu.edu/libraries/vfl/>.

Deadlines: March 1, June 1, and October 1.

State Historical Society of Wisconsin—John C. Geilfuss Fellowship:

The Geilfuss Fellowship is awarded for research at the graduate level and beyond in Wisconsin and U.S. Business and Economic History, with preference given to topics on Wisconsin and the American Midwest and/or research using the collections of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Amount: $1,000-2,000. Contact: Kathy Borkowski, Wisconsin Historical Society Press, 816 State Street, Madison, WI 53706-1482. Contact phone: (608) 264-6465. Web Site: <http://www.wisconsinhistory.org/wmh/fellowships.asp>. Deadline: Continuous.

Institute for European History—Residential Fellowships

The Institute offers Residential Fellowships to promote research in the history of occidental religion at the Institute in Mainz, Germany. The Fellowship is open to scholars holding the Ph.D. and to graduate students at an advanced stage in their dissertation. Amount: Stipends vary with educational level; includes travel allowance and a family allowance, if applicable. Duration of fellowships is from six to twelve months. Contact: Professor Dr. Heinz Duchhardt, Direktor, Institut für Europäische Geschichte, Alte Universitätsstrasse 19, 55116 Mainz, Germany. Contact phone: +49 6131 39 39 360. E-mail: ieg2@ieg-mainz.de. Web Site: <http://www.inst-euro-history.uni-mainz.de/>. Deadline: Continuous.

American Philosophical Society:

The Library Resident Research fellowships support research in the Society's collections.

Applicants must demonstrate a need to work in the Society's collections for a minimum of one month, and a maximum of three months. Contact the APS for further details and application materials. Amount: $2,000/month for up to three months. Contact: Library Resident Research Fellowships, American Philosophical Society Library, 105 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106-3386. Contact phone: (215) 440-3443. Web Site:.

<http://www.amphilsoc.org>. Email: jjahern@amphilsoc.org Deadline: March 1.
Phillips Fund for Native North American Research— Provides grants for research in Native American linguistics, ethnohistory, and the history of studies of Native Americans, in the continental United States and Canada. Ph.D. students and masters students welcome to apply. Amount: $2,500-3,000. Restrictions: Ordinarily given for one year; covers travel, tapes, and consultants' fees; not for general maintenance or the purchase of permanent equipment.
Contact: Phillips Fund for Native American Research, 104 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106-3386. Contact phone: (215) 440-3429. Web Site: <http://www.amphilsoc.org>.
Email: LMusumeci@amphilsoc.org Deadline: March 1.

LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES

Newberry Library:

The Newberry Library offers numerous fellowships for long-term and short-term research in its collections. Most long-term fellowships are only open to postdoctoral scholars, but the short-term fellowships are open to doctoral candidates. Check the Library's web site for information on available fellowships. Contact: Committee on Awards, The Newberry Library, 60 W. Walton St., Chicago, IL 60610- 7324. Phone: (312) 255-3666. E-mail: research@newberry.org. Web Site: <http://www.newberry.org/nl/newberryhome.html>. Deadlines: January 10 (for most long-term fellowships) and March 1 (for most short-term fellowships).

DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service):

DAAD offers research and language study grants for graduate students and individuals holding Ph.D.s in various humanities and social science fields. Its Research Grant, Summer Language Grants and German Studies Grants have opportunities open to graduate students in the humanities, including German language and literature. See the web site for program descriptions and deadlines. Contact: DAAD, 871 United Nations Plaza, New York, NY 10017. Contact phone: (212) 758-3223. E-mail: daadny@daad.org. Web Site: <http://www.daad.org/>.
Deadline: Varies by program.

Walt Whitman Award:

The Walt Whitman Award brings first-book publication, a cash prize of $5,000, and a one-month residency at the Vermont Studio Center to an American who has never before published a book of poetry. The winning manuscript, chosen by an eminent poet, is published by Louisiana State University Press. Contact: Ryan Murphy, Awards Coordinator, Walt Whitman Award, The Academy of American Poets, 584 Broadway, Suite 604, New York, NY 10012-3210. Contact phone: (212) 274-0343, ext. 17. Web Site: <http://www.poets.org/page.php/prmlID/110>.
Email: rmurphy@poets.org Deadlines: Accepted between September 15 and November 15.

American Philosophical Society:

Phillips Fund for Native North American Research—For research in Native American linguistics, ethnohistory, and the history of studies of Native Americans, in the continental United States and Canada. Amount: Up to $3,000. Restrictions: Ordinarily given for one year; covers travel, tapes, films and consultants' fees; not for general maintenance or the purchase of permanent equipment. Contact: Phillips Fund for Native American Research, American Philosophical Society, 104 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106-3386. Contact phone: (215) 440-3429. Email: LMusumeci@amphilsoc.org. Deadline: March 1.
Web Site: <http://www.amphilsoc.org>.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies, Visiting Fellows Program:

The Center invites applications from scholars at both the pre-doctoral and postdoctoral levels of any nationality. The Center currently has two in-house projects with funds earmarked for research fellowships-on rural financial markets and rural development, and on public health and HIV/AIDS policy in Mexico. Applications are not restricted to these topics. The length of the program is between 3 and 10 months. Contact: Carlet Altamirano, Programs Coordinator, Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies, University of California, San Diego, 9500 Gilman Drive, Dept. 0510, La Jolla, CA 92093-0510. Phone: (858) 822-1696. E-mail: caaltamirano@ucsd.edu. Web Site: <http://www.usmex.ucsd.edu/>. Deadline: January 13.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Dissertation Fellows Program, Fund for Theological Education, Inc.:

Applicants must be African American Ph.D. or Th.D. students at the final stage of their graduate work in religious or theological studies, and U.S. citizens. The applicant's dissertation committee must have approved the dissertation research proposal and writing plan and given the student permission to proceed prior to submission of an application for the Dissertation Fellows Program. Applicants must be able to write full time during the fellowship year. Dissertation Fellows will receive a stipend of up to $15,000 for one year. Contact: The Fund for Theological Education, Dissertation Fellows Program, 825 Houston Mill Road, Suite 250, Atlanta, GA 30329. Web site: <http://www.thefund.org/programs/>. Deadline: February 1.

Jacquet Research Awards, Religious Research Association:

The Religious Research Association gives awards for applied and basic research on religion each year on a competitive basis with priority being given to applied projects. Applied client-centered projects are given priority, but basic research is also regularly funded. Funding over $2,000 will be granted only to projects of exceptionally high merit and significance. Applicants are expected to be members of the RRA; full-time students may join the association at the time of their application. Contact: Dr. Mary Bendyna, CARA, Ste 400, 2300 Wisconsin Ave NW, Washington, DC 20007. Email: bendynam@georgetown.edu. Deadline: April 1. Web site: <http://rra.hartsem.edu/constant.htm>.

Institute for European History—Residential Fellowships

The Institute offers Residential Fellowships to promote research in the history of occidental religion at the Institute in Mainz, Germany. The Fellowship is open to scholars holding the Ph.D. and to graduate students at an advanced stage in their dissertation. Amount: Stipends vary with educational level; includes travel allowance and a family allowance, if applicable. Duration of fellowships is from six to twelve months. Contact: Professor Dr. Heinz Duchhardt, Direktor, Institut für Europäische Geschichte, Alte Universitätsstrasse 19, 55116 Mainz, Germany. Contact phone: +49 6131 39 39 360. E-mail: ieg2@ieg-mainz.de. Web Site: <http://www.inst-euro-history.uni-mainz.de/>. Deadlines: Continuous.

Louisville Institute for the Study of Protestantism and American Culture:

The Dissertation Fellowship program supports the final year of Ph.D. or Th.D. dissertation writing for students engaged in research pertaining to American religion. Preference will be given to those proposals that address the current program priorities of the Louisville Institute. Up to ten fellowships of $18,000 each will be awarded. Contact: Louisville Institute, 1044 Alta Vista Road, Louisville, KY 40205-1798. Telephone: (502) 992-5432. Email: info@louisville-institute.org. Web site: <http://www.louisville-institute.org/>. Deadline: January 15.

SOCIOLOGY

American Sociological Association:

Through its Minority Fellowship Program (MFP), the American Sociological Association (ASA) supports the development and training of minority sociologists in mental health and drug abuse research. Funded by a grant from the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) and the National Institute of Drug Abuse (NIDA), the Association's MFP seeks to attract talented doctoral students to ensure a diverse and highly trained workforce is available to assume leadership roles in research related to the Nation's mental health and drug abuse research agendas. Amount: $20,772 for the NIH and $15,000 for the ASA.

Deadline: January 31.

The Sydney S. Spivack Program in Applied Social Research and Social Policy is designed to encourage sociologists to undertake community action projects that bring social science knowledge, methods, and expertise to bear in addressing community-identified issues and concerns. Grant applications are encouraged from sociologists seeking to work with community organizations, local public interest groups, or community action projects. Advanced graduate students are eligible to apply, but the funding cannot be used to support doctoral dissertation research. Amount: $1,000 to $2,500. Deadline: February 1.

Congressional Fellowship Program: The Fellowship brings a PhD-level sociologist to Washington, DC to work as a staff member on a Congressional Committee or in a Congressional Office, or as a member of a Congressional Agency. This intensive four to six month experience reveals the intricacies of the policy making process to the sociological fellow, and shows the usefulness of sociological data and concepts to policy issues. Amount: $15,000. Deadline: February 1.

Contact: American Sociological Association, Congressional Fellowship, 1307 New York Avenue NW, Suite 700, Washington, DC 20005. Web Site: <http://www.asanet.org/>

Resident Fellowships Program, Population Council:

The Population Council offers fellowships for advanced training and research in population studies under the mentorship of a member of its research staff. Proposals must deal with the developing world. Candidates must have recently completed a Ph.D. degree in demography, population studies and/or a closely related social science discipline within the last two years. Applications may be submitted in anticipation of receiving of the doctoral degree, but the fellowship cannot begin until the degree has been awarded. Contact: Population Council, One Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, New York, NY 10017. E-mail: ssfellowship@popcouncil.org. Web Site: <http://www.popcouncil.org/slr/ResidentFellowships.html>. Deadline: Currently not accepting application. Check website at later date.

Social Science Research Council:

The SSRC offers several fellowships at the pre-doctoral, postdoctoral, and dissertation level. Awards are for various areas of social science research, including: Eastern Europe, International Migration, Japan, Near and Middle East, Sexuality, South Asia, the former Soviet Union and its Successor States, Peace and Security, as well as fellowships for minority scholars. Check with the SSRC for specific programs and eligibility requirements. Contact: Social Science Research Council, 810 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY 10019. Phone: (212) 377-2700. Email: info@ssrc.org. Web Site: <http://www.ssrc.org>. Deadline: Varies by program.

Sociology--Doctoral Dissertation Awards, National Science Foundation:

The NSF Sociology Program supports research on problems of human social organization, demography, and processes of individual and institutional change. It encourages theoretically focused empirical investigations of fundamental social processes. Included is research on organizations and organizational behavior, popular dynamics, social movements, social groups, labor force participation, stratification and mobility, family, social networks, socialization, gender roles, and the sociology of science and technology. Contact: National Science Foundation, Sociology Program, 4201 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 995, Arlington, VA 22230. Contact phone: (703) 292-8762. Website: <http://www.nsf.gov/sbe/ses/sociol/start.htm>. Deadlines: January 15 and October 15.

WOMEN'S STUDIES

American Association of University Women Educational Foundation:

Dissertation Fellowships are available to women who are in the final year of their dissertation writing. To qualify, applicants must have completed all course work, passed all required preliminary examinations, and received approval for their research proposal or plan by the application deadline. Students holding any fellowship for writing a dissertation in the year prior to the AAUW Educational Foundation fellowship year are not eligible. Open to applicants in all fields of study, except engineering. Scholars engaged in researching gender issues are encouraged to apply. Contact: AAUW Educational Foundation, Department 60, 301 ACT Drive, Iowa City, IA 52243-4030. Web Site: <http://www.aauw.org/>. Deadline: November 15.

National Women's Studies Association:

NWSA will award $1,000 to a student who, in the fall of the year of the award, will be engaged in the research or writing stages of a Master's Thesis or PhD dissertation in the interdisciplinary field of women's studies. The research project must be on women and must enhance the NWSA mission. Applicants must be members of NWSA at the time of application. Contact: NWSA, University of Maryland, 7100 Baltimore Blvd., Suite 502, College Park, MD 20740. Phone: (301) 403-0524. Web Site: <http://www.nwsa.org/>. Deadline: February 15.

Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women, Brown University:

The Pembroke Center annually supports three or four postdoctoral research fellows in residence for an academic year. Candidates who do work that is qualitative and humanistic in nature are drawn from the humanities, the social sciences, and the life sciences. Fellows may not hold a tenured position in any college or university. The Center has an annual research focus. Contact: Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women, Box 1958, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912. Phone: (401) 863-2643. Email: Elizabeth_Barboza@brown.edu. Web Site: <http://www.pembrokecenter.org/>. Deadline: December 10.

Sallie Bingham Center for Women's History and Culture:

The Rare Book, Manuscript, and Special Collections Library of Duke University announces the availability of grants for researchers whose work would benefit from access to the library's archival and rare printed collections. The Sallie Bingham Center for Women's History and Culture offers The Mary Lily Research Grant to help defray expenses. Amount: up to $1,000. Contact: Rare Book, Manuscript, and Special Collections Library, Box 90185, Duke University, Durham, NC 27708. Phone: (919) 660-5920. Web Site: <http://scriptorium.lib.duke.edu/specoll/grants.html>. Deadline: January 17.